

CONTENTS

Preface ix

PART ONE: THE BIRTH OF THE ATOMIC THEORY

1. The Backdrop: The Greek Miracle 3
2. The Foreground: Arche the Primordial Substance 11
3. The Atomists' Entry onto the Stage 31
4. A Very Particular Atomist: Plato 49
5. The Antiatomists 59
6. Principles and Primordial Substances 75
7. Hindu Atomism 77

PART TWO: A FEW SCATTERED REVIVALS DURING A PROLONGED SUSPENSION (FIRST TO FIFTEENTH CENTURIES)

8. Early Medieval Christianity vis-a-vis the Atoms 87
9. The Medieval Christian Atomists 97
10. Medieval Jewish Thought vis-a-vis the Atoms 101
11. Arab Atomism 107

PART THREE: FROM THE RENAISSANCE TO THE AGE OF ENLIGHTENMENT

12. The Resurgence of the Atomic Theory: Christian Atomism 117
13. The Christian Antiatomists 157
14. Boscovitch, or Punctual Atomism 175
15. Berkeley, or Atoms Dismissed 179

16. Kant: An Atomist
Turned Antiatomist 183
17. The Rank-and-File Atomists 189

PART FOUR: THE ADVENT OF SCIENTIFIC ATOMISM:
NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES

18. A Brief Overview 193
19. The Nineteenth Century: In Search of the Invisible and Indivisible Atom 197
20. The Twentieth Century: From an
Invisible and Indivisible Atom to One
That Is Divisible and Visible 255

Provisional Epilogue 343

Notes 355

Index 393